Queen Nur

A flavorful seasoning of tales from the African and African-American oral tradition that will ground you in tradition, butter you up with joy and delightfully sweeten your mind.

Queen Nur is nationally known for her highly energetic, creative and expressive storytelling style. Tales come alive with the help of a drummer and his authentic African instruments. The entire family can participate, celebrate and be captivated. Lessons about human values woven through the stories will last long after the stories end.

"She is so lively ... her energy reaches out and captures you and makes you come alive."
audience interview, New Jersey Storytelling Festival

Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. For special accommodations, please contact the library at least five days in advance.
